Cloverbud Booth Display Item

- Each Cloverbud is invited to submit an item to display in the county-wide Cloverbud Booth, which is in the 4-H Block Building. The display item should be something created by the Cloverbud during a 4-H meeting, activity, or event, or as a representation of something they learned during their time as a Cloverbud.
- Items should be dropped off to Kelly Beers in the 4-H Block Building on Sunday, July 7 between 2:00pm and 4:00pm or on Monday, July 8 between 9:00am and 12:00noon. (Advisors may also collect items from Cloverbuds and turn them in on the Cloverbuds' behalf.)

Cloverbud 4-H Poster Display

- Each Cloverbud member may enter one (1) poster that reflects something they have learned related to the 4-H program in Trumbull County. This may include animal-related topics or other topics.
- Posters should be 22" x 28" and should be displayed horizontally. Posters may not have any 3-D elements (anything that sticks out from the poster).
- Posters should be labeled in the bottom right-hand corner with the Cloverbud's name, 4-H age (age as of January 1), animal species, and 4-H club name.
- Posters can be turned into an advisor from the Silver Claws 4-H Club, on Tuesday, July 9 between 10:00am and 4:00pm in the Rabbit/Cat/Sale Barn. (Advisors may also collect posters from Cloverbuds and turn them in on the Cloverbuds' behalf.) Cloverbuds will be recognized for their participation only- this is not a contest. Posters will be displayed in the Cloverbud Booth in the 4-H Block Building throughout the week.

Cloverbud Horse Activities

- Daily Monday, July 8 through Friday, July 12 beginning at 6:30pm and meeting at the Horse Area Concession Building on the south side of Sawyer Ring.
- The Trumbull County Junior Fair Horse Committee invites Cloverbud members to participate in a different horse-related activity each night to learn more about what it means to own a horse and participate in 4-H horse projects.
- These activities are coordinated by Breanna Dyson.

Cloverbud Poultry Activities

- Tuesday, July 9 at 2:00pm in the Poultry Barn
- Join our 4-H friends in the Poultry Barn for a poultry-related story time and craft, and the opportunity to meet some of our feathered friends! This is a great opportunity for Cloverbuds who may be interested in showing poultry (chickens, ducks, turkeys, etc.) in the future 4-H years!
- This activity is coordinated by Rachel Ward and Christina Stout.

Cloverbud Show & Tell

- Wednesday, July 10 at 1:00pm in the 4-H Block Building
- Cloverbuds may prepare a brief "Show & Tell" presentation on a topic of their choosing related to their experience as a Cloverbud. The presentation can be completed alone or as part of a team.
- Presentations may include a poster, a talk, a skit, a demonstration of a skill, showing off something that the Cloverbud made, or something else. Please feel free to get creative! This is a great way for Cloverbuds to prepare for 4-H judging and public speaking opportunities in the future.
- Cloverbuds will be recognized for their participation only- this is not a contest.

- This activity is coordinated by Ashlee Meardith and sponsored by Trumbull County 4-H and the Trumbull County Junior Fair.

Cloverbud STEM Activities

- Wednesday, July 10 at approximately 2:00pm (directly following Cloverbud Show & Tell) in the 4-H Block Building
- Cloverbuds are invited to join our 4-H leaders to participate in hands-on STEM-based activities.
- This activity is coordinated by Ashlee Meardith and sponsored by Trumbull County 4-H.

Cloverbud Lamb Lead Line

- Wednesday, July 10 at approximately 2:00pm (directly following the Junior Fair Sheep Show) in the Dairy Ring between the Dairy and Beef barns
- Cloverbuds can learn how to lead and show a lamb during the Jr. Fair Lamb Show, following the Showman of Showmen Class. Older 4-H members will be on hand in the ring to assist Cloverbuds as needed.
- This activity is coordinated by Brenda Hall and sponsored by The Ramsey Family & Battelino Land Service.

Cloverbud Goat Show

- Wednesday, July 10 at approximately 2:00pm (directly following the Junior Fair Goat Show) in the Sale Ring in the Rabbit/Cat/Sale Barn
- Cloverbuds can register the morning of this event on-site in the sale ring (beginning at 9:00am). Cloverbuds will be able to walk a goat in the sale ring along with the assistance of an older 4-H member.
- This activity is coordinated by Zane Lehmann on behalf of the Fair Board.

Cloverbud Meet the Bunnies

- Thursday, July 11 at 10:00am in the tent next to the Rabbit/Cat/Sale Barn
- Join members of our 4-H rabbit clubs for a meet and greet with some of our fluffy rabbit friends! This is a great opportunity for Cloverbuds to learn more about showing rabbits and some of the rabbit breeds.
- This activity is coordinated by Kelly Beers.

Cloverbud Stuffed Animal Dress-Up

- Saturday, July at 6:00pm in the tent outside the Rabbit/Cat/Sale Barn
- Cloverbuds are invited to participate in the Small Animal Dress-Up show by bringing a dressed-up stuffed animal. Dress-ups may be in one of three categories: Famous pairs (owner and stuffed animal dressed as a pair), fair theme (this year's theme is the Olympics), or general (any dress-up they would like).
- Cloverbuds will be recognized for their participation only- this is not a contest.
- This activity is coordinated by Hannah Gilligan and Ryan Hickey.

Cloverbud Public Speaking Event

- Sunday, July 14 at 1:00pm in the 4-H Block Building
- Cloverbuds are invited to participate in the 4-H Public Speaking Contest by reciting the 4-H pledge. This is a great opportunity for Cloverbuds to practice their public speaking skills!
- Cloverbuds will be recognized for their participation only- this is not a contest.
- This activity is coordinated by Ashlee Meardith.

Peewee Dairy Showmanship

- Sunday, July 14 at approximately 3:00pm (directly following the Junior Fair Cheese Auction and Dress-a-Cow Contest) in the Dairy Ring between the Dairy and Beef barns
- Cloverbuds are invited to learn how to lead and show a dairy calf with an older 4-H member as an assistant.
- This activity is coordinated by Richard Owen and sponsored by the Dairy Committee.
